Splunk .Conf22 is right around the corner!

With just 12 days to go until Splunk .Conf22 you may be wondering, “What swag will Splunkable have this year?”. But if we told you, we’d have to kill you, just kidding!

This year’s swag will be... -Drum Roll Please- Splunkable pins and pop sockets!

We will be hanging out with our community members who signed up to meet us in our SKYLOFT. If you’d like to be included in the party, head over to <https://splunkable.com/meet-splunkable-at-conf/> and submit the form found there. Otherwise, just look for us out in the wild of conf in our Splunkable hoodies.

In addition to the swag, our Splunkable team is super psyched for Michael “JKat54” Bentley to be co-hosting the very first SplugPodcast podcast live from .Conf22! It will definitely be an event you don’t want to miss, so tune in!
